Split Funding: A combination of funding sources that will pay from both Student Accounting and Employee Payroll.

Fall 2010 Example: A portion of stipend will pay out on Oct 25 and the balance on Nov 01.

* I send an e-mail to affected students prior to the start of quarter letting them know when their checks will be split funded. Most common for students receiving Work Study, program fellowship, and our portion of the fellowship match (Example: NSF/NDSEG/Krell/EPA).

In-State Fees and Non-Resident Tuition will post on the following dates if the information is data entered into the system.

Appointments entered after these dates will post accordingly.

NOTE: You may receive payment reminders from the Registrar until our payment is synchronized with these dates:

14-Sep	(must be enrolled for 12 units prior to this date for fees to be paid)
24-Dec	(must be enrolled for 12 units prior to this date for fees to be paid)
18-Mar	(must be enrolled for 12 units prior to this date for fees to be paid)

Taxes:

Block Grant Fellowships and other specified fellowships paid from the Student Accounting System will NOT have taxes withheld.

Income is reported to you on tax form 1098.

* Refer to the Student Accounting website for applicable tax publications: <http://studentaccounting.ucdavis.edu/tax.cfm>

Employee Payroll DOES have taxes withheld. The most common job titles are TA's, Readers, and GSRs.

Income is reported to you on tax form W2.

At the time of hire, you will receive a W4 Tax Allowance Certificate to identify your deductions.

IMPORTANT: IF MOVING, BE SURE TO UPDATE IN SISWEB, YOUR PROGRAM, AND IN EMPLOYEE PAYROLL!
IT'S THE ONLY WAY YOUR TAX FORMS WILL CATCH UP WITH YOU!
